

MARCH FOR PUBLIC EDUCATION

DOWNTOWN LOS ANGELES

SATURDAY
DECEMBER 15
GRAND PARK AT 10AM

Students, parents, educators: Together we raise our voice to make real changes for public schools!
LAUSD superintendent Austin Beutner and the school board majority refuse to spend their $1.86 billion in reserves to support our students. Instead, they want to create conditions of austerity to justify their cuts to neighborhood schools.

Join us in demanding that Beutner and the board invest in educating the children of Los Angeles – ALL of them, not some of them!

WE ARE FIGHTING FOR:

- * SMALLER CLASS SIZES
- * MORE NURSES, COUNSELORS, PSYCHOLOGISTS, AND LIBRARIANS
- * LESS TESTING & MORE TEACHING
- * COMPETITIVE WAGES
- * CHARTER AND CO-LOCATION REGULATION
- * REAL SUPPORT FOR SCHOOL SAFETY
- * COMMUNITY SCHOOLS & SUPPORT FOR FAMILIES
- * GREATER INVESTMENT IN ADULT ED, EARLY ED, & BILINGUAL ED
